Misses Nellie and Lotta Moyle, and Miss Lizzie Borland, of Bodie, made Bridgeport a flying visit on Tuesday.

C. C. Turner returned on Saturday from the other side of the mountains.

Philander Hutton and wife, of Delano, Kern county, are visiting brothers Norman and Mose.

Ben. Bangs, Eugene Godat and James Atchison came over from Bodie on Wednesday.

Miss Cecilia Roach, of Sweetwater, is visiting Miss Ella Hughes.

N. B. Ward, Jas. Gleason, Wm. Monahan, J. McKean, E. Marks, Chas. Fitzgerald and Jas. Cran came over from Bodie yesterday on a pleasure excursion.

CASA DIABLO SPRINGS.—The Casa Diablo Springs, in Mono county, near the Inyo county line, are noted for their medicinal qualities. The Inyo Independent of Saturday last says: "Casa Diablo is a wonderful region. Volcanoes have been active there at a very recent period. There are vast masses of volcanic glass piled up; thousands of columns are regularly piled up as though done by human hands. These columns, if they could be transported, would be beautiful objects in large botanical gardens. There are many visitors there, but the only accommodation is a log house; visitors must carry their own provisions and bedding. About four miles from the hot springs is a large stream where large trout are plentiful, but must be speared. As they are only 47 miles from Bishop Creek, Inyo invalids frequent them and are benefited. They are owned by Rawson, of Inyo county, who, we hear, proposes to erect a bath house, free to all who may wish to try the virtues of its waters.

LEGISLATURE.—The following candidates for the Republican nomination for Assemblyman, are announced: Harvey Boone, Wilson Butler, Robert M. Folger, John D. Murphey and A. F. Hector, subject to the Primary Election to be held on September 8th. Without the intervention of a Convention, the Republicans will have an opportunity to select the candidate by an honest vote. So far as R. M. Folger is concerned, should one of the others be nominated for the head of the ticket, he will not "kick" or "sniff," but the name will go to the masshead of the CHRONICLE-UNION and a vigorous fight made for his election.

THE BUTCHER BIRD.—The Butcher bird, that terror of little birds, has been getting his deadly work in here. On Monday last one attacked the canaries of Mrs. W. H. Virden, who had hung them out for a sun-bath. One of her best singers had his head taken off clean, and four others were seriously injured. It is unsafe to hang the little pets out of doors. Recently these butcher birds killed every canary bird hung out at Virginia City.

STOR IT.—There has been too much hoodlumism going on this week to suit our people. Firing pistols on our streets at night and hooting and yelling is not indulged in by our own people, and outsiders, who have come here temporarily, should be induced to understand that they cannot indulge in such sports with impunity.

WHISKY TO INDIANS.—Michael Norton was brought over from Bodie on Tuesday by Officer Curran and lodged in the County Jail under a sentence of sixty days for selling liquor to Indians.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. J. Whittaker, just from England, will hold services at the School House to-morrow at 11 o'clock. All are invited.

ARRESTED FOR ROBBERY.—On Thursday morning two festive young men, non-residents, and the "village cobbler," were arrested by Sheriff Morgan and Deputy Crowell on a charge of robbery, preferred by Charley Gong, a Chinese resident.

The accused were taken before Justice Hanson for examination, W. O. Parker appearing for the people, in the absence of the District Attorney, and R. S. Miner for the defendants. After hearing the testimony Justice Hanson discharged the prisoners, but not until he had given them a sensible talk on the foolishness of their conduct, and the serious results that may follow a repetition of such conduct. He spoke feelingly and his remarks set the three to crying, and they promised to behave themselves in the future. As soon as they were discharged, the two non-residents started for the Walze ranch to go to work. We hope this will be a lesson to them, that it is more profitable and better in every way to conduct themselves like young gentlemen than to try to enact the role of a hoodlum and in time bring up at the State Prison or the gallows. It is also a lesson, that Bridgeport is not a very easy place to "paint red."

NEW CITIZENS.—On Thursday, Judge Hakes admitted to citizenship Jas. Acheson, a native of Ireland, on the testimony of John Sherman and Sam. Waugh; and Pius Rehrbach, a native of Germany, on the testimony of Sam. Fales and W. Calkins.

THE CANDIDATES.—Thus for 15 Republican candidates are announced as follows: Assembly, 5; Sheriff, 5; Superior Judge, 3; County Clerk, 1; District Attorney, 1; and more to come, it is supposed.

THE VOTE.—The vote for the head of the Republican ticket in Mono county will show a majority of from 160 to 175. The Republican majority in the Assembly District will be about 330.

EXCURSION RATES.—We call attention to the advertisement of the Southern Pacific Company in relation to Excursion Tickets to health and pleasure resorts on this Coast.

FINAL SALE.—The final sale of the food, now personal property will take place at the Goodnow Ranch, Antelope Valley, on Tuesday next.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY.—In another column will be found the announcement of Francis Hanson for the Republican nomination of District Attorney.

FOR SHERIFF.—Myron M. Waltz is announced as a Republican candidate for the nomination for Sheriff and Tax Collector.

A SOCIAL DANCE.—In compliment to our Bodie sisters there will be a social dance at Bryan's Hall this evening.

NEW SALOON.—C. F. Strobbridge this morning opened a saloon opposite the Leavitt House.

LADIES, when you go to Bodie, call on Salisbury, and get your dress goods at cost.

The Republicans of Mono county got so disgusted with the action of county conventions in former years that they have adopted the Crawford plan of choosing candidates this year. By this plan the wire pullers are headed off and men who are really wanted by the people are chosen for office. Inyo Independent.

INYS had better try the "Crawford Plan." If we are not mistaken, there was some "bucking" in that county two years ago over Republican nominations. It is the only honest way to select candidates.

Some of the best dressed gentlemen of Mono county are indebted to Silas B. Smith of Bodie, for their stylish appearance. He has the agency for some of the finest tailoring establishments in the East. His samples for the Spring and Summer are unsurpassed. He displays over 2,000 different patterns of cloth. His experience with the tape line for many years insures a good fit every time. When in Bodie call on him and inspect the goods.

The new school census of San Francisco shows that the State has been systematically swindled through the Census Marshals of that city. The new census, which has been carefully taken, shows there are 23,000 children less than has been reported. This, it is said, is the first time the census has been honestly taken in that city for many years. Thus the other counties in the State, particularly interior counties, where the census is honestly taken, have been robbed of their just proportion of State School moneys. Had this swindle not been detected San Francisco would have gobbled some $100,000 this year more than she is entitled to.

The great American, James G. Blaine, will be received in New York with honors befitting the greatest living American. It is estimated 200,000 men will be in the procession, and the water procession will be two miles long. The labor organizations have hired Cappa's great band and will serenade him at his hotel. This will also be a big affair.

Helping the Right Side.—To help the right side is not only commendable in a general point of view, but is judicious and prudent when that help is enlisted in behalf of the right side of the body, just over the lower ribs in the region of the liver. The most efficient help is afforded by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, an anti-bilious medicine of incomparable efficacy. Indigestion of the liver is accompanied by constipation, sick headache, furrowed tongue, nausea, occasional vertigo, an unpleasant breath, yellowness of the skin and ball of the eye. The author of these symptoms, liver complaint, routed by the Bitters is accompanied by them in its flight. Fever and ague, which always involves the liver, dyspepsia, rheumatism, debility and kidney troubles are all made dies to the early relief and final cure of which this medicine is adapted. Don't use it by fits and starts, but systematically, that its full effects may result in a perfect restoration of health.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

The Republican State Convention at San Francisco on Tuesday made the following nominations:

Chief Justice Supreme Court, W. H. Beatty, of Sacramento; Associate Justice, J. D. Works, of San Diego; Electors at Large, John F. Swift and W. H. L. Barnes, of San Francisco; Alternates, G. G. Rinehard, of El Dorado, and C. F. Jones, of Sacramento. District Electors, T. S. Carothers, Mendocino; G. W. Schell, Stanislaus; L. B. Mizner, Solano; S. M. Shortridge, San Francisco; Geo. A. Knight, San Francisco; H. H. Streeter, San Bernardino. Alternates, C. C. Bush, Tehama; J. W. Street, Tuolumne; J. P. Abbott, Contra Costa; C. Danker, San Francisco; J. R. Lowe, Santa Clara; H. V. Morehouse, Monterey. Congressmen, First District, J. J. De Haven, Humboldt; Second, J. McEagon, Amador; Third, Joseph McKenna, Solano; Fourth, W. W. Morrow, San Francisco; Fifth, T. G. Phelps, San Mateo; Sixth, Wm. Vandever, Ventura.

MORRISON CAN'T HELP IT.—Selling goods at cost. Salisbury will give all a fair show.

DEATH.—Fred. Elliott, once one of the proprietors of the late Bodie Standard, and Bodie News, died in the Bellevue Hospital, New York, recently. He had been engaged, after leaving Bodie, on several New York papers, the last being the World.

The rates of fare from San Francisco to the Grand Army Encampment at Columbus, O., have been fixed at $80 for the round trip for all who wish to go. The time of departure has been fixed for September 23.

McCarthy, the ex Democratic Clerk of the Supreme Court, has run the length of the legal rope and must now go to San Quentin for five years. If he had gone at once when convicted his term would soon be out.

A bicycle frightens a team and throws a carriage down an embankment near Great Barrington on Sunday last, severely injuring J. S. Greenwood, a Brooklyn lawyer, and several ladies.

C. E. Seavey, an old and prominent citizen of Marysville, died at Olan, Scotland, on July 24th, aged 60 years. He was President of the Anti-Debris Association.

"Snuff" Cox says he will be a candidate for re-election to Congress. He may find his sun has set on his Congressional career.

The British House Select Committee is about to recommend measures restricting passport immigration from Russia, Poland and Germany.

Judge McKinstry, of the Supreme Court, has resigned, to take effect October 1st. He takes the Presidency of Hastings Law College.

The Inyo Republican Committee will meet at Independence on the 10th to call a County Convention. Better try the "Crawford Plan."

The Norfolk and Delaware Hosiery Co., of Brunswick, N. J., on Saturday suspended work. The cause is the Mills free trade bill.

The Sioux have refused to ratify the treaty regarding the giving up of a portion of their reservation.

Stockton has organized a company to build a broad gauge road to Lodi. Stockton is evidently waking up.

Railroad folks say that 200,000 people will come to California next Fall and Winter.

The California Theater, San Francisco, has been closed, and the building will be torn down to make room for a new edifice.

The clay from the lower levels of the Comstock is found to answer well for all purposes for which fire clay is used.

The National Party, whatever that means, is to hold a National Convention in Chicago September 11th.

Miss Florence Molinelli, who some years ago lived in Bodie, is acquiring fame as a political speaker in Spokane Falls.

The assessment roll of Amador county totals up $4,384,700, an increase over last year of $92,775.

A gang of longshoremen in Boston gave John L. Sullivan a good and deserved beating a few days ago.

On Saturday last at Detroit the pacer "Yon Bet" paced a mile in 2:06, the fastest time on record.

San Jose did not know a case of poison one sickness from leprosy.

Fire had another big fire on Saturday last.

Thomas, Carney, the War Governor of Kansas from 1861 to 1864, is dead.

Randall is better and has been removed to his home at Wayne Station, Penn.

The Turner Societies have been having their annual re-union in San Francisco.

Cent's fine calf boots and shoes at Salisbury's, cheap.

At a meeting of the Trades Assembly of Western Pennsylvania, representing over 60,000 men, adopted a series of resolutions emphatically condemning the Mills Tariff bill and its advocates. Congressman W. L. Scott, of Erie, Pa., was condemned as an enemy of labor and a dangerous person to the welfare of society and the industrial progress of America and a bitter enemy of organized labor.

Ferry H. Pratt, a drummer for Rosenthal, Feder & Co., of San Francisco, was murdered and robbed near Nigger Tent, Sierra county, on Friday evening of last week. Nigger Tent is a notorious rendezvous for murderers, thieves, etc.

The new cable from Vancouver to Australia will probably run by way of the Sandwich, Fanning and Fiji Islands, and thence to New Zealand and Australia, a distance of 5,800 miles, but the longest stretch of cable will not be over 2,000 miles.

Brie, the Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, is worth $20,000,000. The Democratic papers are all the time intimating that the wealthy men of the country are Republican monopolists. Any more rich Democrats to be heard from?

Congressman Biggs was sick when the Mills bill passed, but he went to the House to record his vote against the people of his State. His "liver is out of order" the telegrams say. His liver will be much disordered on and after the 6th of November.

The Palmer House, Chicago, was struck by lightning on Tuesday morning, but no particular damage was done. The flagstaff was splintered. The guests were badly scared.

BOUND TO GO.—Salisbury has a choice lot of shoes for sale at cost.

CHRONICLE-UNION.

AUGUST 4, 1888.

AFTER THE BATTLE.

It was after the din of the battle
Had ceased in the silent gloom.
When hushed was the musketry's rattle,
And quiet the cannon's deep boom.
The smoke of the conflict had lifted
And the clear air was free,
With the soft crimson light slowly fading
From the sky.
I looked back from each motionless gun,
The trophies of the battle,
Rang out on the clear autumn air,
And the echoes came back from the mountains.
Zephyr-whispers like breathings of prayer.
The arrows of sunlight that shone
Through the trees touched a brow white
As snow.
On the blood-red lips 'mid the glow and
the dying
And I flushed in the last parting glow.
The dark, crimson tide slowly ebbing,
Stained red the light jacket of gray;
Another in blue and white by his side
And watched the life passing away.
He lay back in the dust, his face
Joe Turner, lives up in Maine;
Gave him these, and my last message
Was forgiveness. Here a low moan of pain Reached his voice. Then, "You'll do me
this favor,
For you shot me," and his whisper sank
low.
Gave the jacket in blue, "Brother Charles,
There's no need, I'm your brother, I'm Joe."

TO AMUSE A GUEST.

The Various Pastimes Proper to a Country Residence—Etiquette of Carriage Riding.
Now, how to amuse a guest in the country is one of the questions which a young hostess will surely ask. The answer is Lawn tennis seems to be the solvent, so far as the young are concerned. Every country place should have a lawn tennis court. Archery has not yet become accounted in America, but there are clubs
in certain circles which promise a future
for this game.
Yachting is a favorite summer entertainment, and adds much to the ease of country neighborhoods near the sea.
The opulent young people, near New York, who keep horses and dogs, who offer everybody a "mount," and take them to the hunt, have great facilities for entertaining guests. But no incompetent rider should ever get on a friend's horse.
An English writer has said a man will forgive you for breaking his own neck,
but not for breaking the neck of his friend's horse. But driving in a carriage over a good road is by far the favorite amusement for ladies.
A correspondent writes to ask the etiquette of carriage riding. A gentleman always takes his seat with his back to the horses, opposite the lady, unless he is requested to sit by the lady. When he enters the carriage he should put his left foot on the step and enter the carriage with his right foot. This is, however, superfluous, he sits facing the horses; if he sits with his back to the horses, he retards the process. When the carriage stops he must be the first to alight, and then assist the ladies. He must, if he sits beside the lady who owns the carriage, sit on the left hand.
Ladies who own country houses and who entertain should learn to drive well.
Indeed, in these days, when ladies drive ponies in little cars, we need not advise them to drive well.
Many correspondents ask what is the best equipment for a young man? A light buggy and one horse is very showy, a dog cart the most convenient, a high carriage very stately, but the two-seated post wagon, the most convenient for a country neighborhood. There should always be a servant behind.
A guest who is asked to stay over Sunday at a country house should always hold himself at the disposal of the hostess.
If she proposes a plan of action he should fall in with it, and yet he should not be a heavyweight. He must be ready to walk, read, write letters, take himself off if he sees he is not wanted, and the best hostess is she who sees to it that, while her guest is taken care of, he has no suspicion that he is being "entertained." The charm of a country neighborhood should be in its ease, and while a good-natured host and hostess place their guests in the best carriages, and their servants at the disposition of their guests, the greatest care should be observed by the guest not to presume on this; to observe the family hours.
Some people are "born visitors"—they have the tact to perceive when they are wanted and when not; they allow the hostess to get off to write her letters, they are gay and amusing. Such a visitor is in great demand.—M. E. W. Sherwood,

STEEL NEEDLES.

The Sewing Implements That Preceded Them.
It is impossible to say who were the inventors of needles; for as a very early civilized race attempts were made among various uncivilized nations to form some article out of bone, ivory or like materials, in order to stitch together their clothes. Doubtless our first mother complained of the want of a needle, along with the flint of the flint, and the thread of the flax.
But the needles of metal were in common use among the more refined nations of antiquity, as the Hindus, Chinese, Persians, Assyrians, Hebrews, Greeks
and Romans. Every mention of the ladies of olden times, and the needles of bronze for sewing and knitting, and needles have been found in Egyptian tombs that must have been made some 4000 years ago.
The first needle was first manufactured in Spain, where the process of making it was long kept a secret, while it was first introduced into England in the time of Queen Elizabeth.
In 1530, Christopher Greening, at Long Green, in Buckinghamshire, erected needle works, and thus began the manufacture of an article for which England is famed throughout the world.
John Wals All Right.
"Your husband is out pretty late tonight, Mrs. Cally."
"Yes, Mrs. Lally; his business keeps him late, you know."
"Are you sure it's his business? These men ain't to be trusted too far, Mrs. Cally.
I speak from experience."
"Well, I guess my John is all right."
"What makes you so confident?"
"Well, he always only comes once a week,
and then he grumbles about having it to do.
He doesn't give the least bit of attention to his personal appearance, indeed, I have hard work in keeping him tidy. Then he won't put a drop of cologne on his handkerchief, and—"
"That's enough, Mrs. Cally. There's no use in his being that sure. He'll be—"
